Diploma in Sports Management (Cricket)

Drive your career in sports with Flinders University and the South Australian Cricket Association

Based at Adelaide Oval, the Diploma in Sports Management (Cricket) will teach you the core skills needed to begin a career in sports management, backed by 100 hours of practical and hands-on training with South Australian Cricket Association management and staff.

Go behind the scenes and learn how a Cricket association operates, gain vital marketing and event management skills, build your professional network and discover how you can make your mark in sports management.

On completion, you'll be fully prepared to pursue a career in sports management, or continue your studies with guaranteed entry into Flinders degrees.

My favourite SACA placement was at the Test match Australia vs. India, where we gained insights into Cricket Australia's media, commercial, sponsorship, and event activations. The SACA Diploma provides practical, hands-on sports management experiences. I thoroughly recommend it."
